THE DIVINE SERVICE; STORY OF SALVATION:

When God instituted the Passover for His people Israel, He called it a "memorial day" (Exodus 12: 14). By reenacting the meal of bitter herbs, unleavened bread, and roast lamb, the Israelites were to remember how God redeemed their forefathers from Egyptian slavery. The youngest child was to ask his father to explain the feast by retelling the story of the exodus.

We have seen that all the major feasts of the Old Testament were remembrances of God's saving deeds in history. The Israelites were not just to "remember" these events by thinking about them; they were also to tell the stories and carry out the rites that made these ancient acts of salvation their salvation.

So, also, when Jesus transformed the Passover into the Lord's Supper and said, "Do this in remembrance of Me," He didn't mean simply that we should think about Him when we eat bread and drink wine. But in the Lord's Supper, we truly eat His flesh, given for us, and drink His blood, shed for us on the cross for the forgiveness of our sins. In His Supper, we celebrate His death and resurrection until He comes again in glory.

This miraculous "remembrance" of ancient deeds is made possible through God's mighty Word. In the Divine Service, God's Word proclaims and reenacts everything Jesus did for us. In certain places, this is explicit: the Creed and the Proper Prefaces, for example, tell the story plainly. The lectionary readings and the seasons of the Church Year take us through Christ's life step by step.

But as the Divine Service takes us from Jesus' teaching and preaching to the Supper He instituted on the night of His crucifixion, it also takes us through His life every Sunday. We sing the Christmas song of the angels in the Gloria in Excelsis and join the crowds on Palm Sunday singing, "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord." The Divine Service is the story of salvation in miniature.

NEEDING ASSISTANCE?

If you are needing someone to deliver groceries, run errands, provide transportation to a doctor's appt., or needing a pastor to bring the Lord's Supper, please contact the church office at (402) 423-7639 and we will do what we can to fill this need. If you are able to come to the church building and receive communion, please call to make an appointment with one of the pastors.

Thank you to everyone who has volunteered their time to help with the above tasks. You are appreciated.

PROJECT FOR GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY SCHOOL STUDENT

On Good Shepherd's facebook page is a coloring sheet that can be printed. Students are invited to color the sheet, write an encouraging message on the back of the sheet, and send or bring it to the church. The pastors and vicar will then distribute these messages to our elderly and/or shut-in members as they make visits to let them know that we are thinking of them. Thank you for helping us to reach out to our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Good Shepherd News & Notes

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT: "And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice." The sheep know the Shepherd's voice, and we delight to go where He leads. Of course, the world, the devil, and our own sinful flesh want to pull us in another direction. Following the Shepherd means life; following anyone else means death. So, no matter how difficult the path is that the Shepherd points out, let us follow him!

LIFE MOMENT: The Good Shepherd lays down His life for the sheep (John 10: 11-16). Herein lies our assurance that our Shepherd does not abandon His sheep. He loves them too much. He paid too much for them to forsake them. We live our lives, not in the absence of suffering, but in the presence of the Good Shepherd.
