

A Multitude Comes From the East and the West #510

1 Children A mul - ti - tude comes from the 2 Choir But they who have al - ways re -
 3 O God, let us hear when our 4 Oh, that we the throug of the 5 God grant that I may, of His
 6 Children All tri - als shall be like a
 7 The heav - ens shall ring with an

1 east and the west To sit at the
 2 sist - ed His grace And on their own
 3 Shep - herd shall call In ac - cents per -
 4 ran - somed may swell, To whom He hath 5 in - fin - ite love, Re - main in His 6 dream that is past, For - got - ten all 7 an - them more grand Than ev - er on

1 feast of sal - va - tion With A - bra - ham,
 2 vir - tue de - pend - ed Shall then be con -
 3 sua - sive and ten - der, That while there is 4 grant - ed re - mis - sion! God gra - cious - ly
 5 mer - ci - ful keep - ing And sit with the 6 trou - ble and mourn - ing. All ques - tions and 7 earth was re - cord - ed. The blest of the

1 I - saac, and Ja - cob, the blest, O -
 2 demned and cast out from His face, E -
 3 time we make haste, one and all, And 4 make us in hea - ven to dwell And 5 King at His ta - ble a - bove When 6 doubts have been an - swered at last, When 7 Lord shall re - ceive at His hand The

1 bey - ing the Lord's in - vi - ta - tion.
 2 ter - nal - ly lost and un - friend - ed.
 3 find Him. our might - y de - fend - er.
 4 save us from end - less per - di - tion.
 5 here in the grave I am sleep - ing.
 6 ris - es the light of that morn - ing.
 7 crown to the vic - tors a - ward - ed.

Have mer - cy up - on us, O Je - sus!