Who is Responsible?

To recognize our nature as sinful does not mean that God created mankind as disobedient or that our created essence is sinful. God created and declared all He created "very good" (Genesis 1: 31). Original sin does not come from God. God is not sin's creator or author. Nor is original sin God's creation or work, but it is the devil's work.

In other situations, hard work, proper education, or having enough resources might rescue us. However, our attempts to escape God's judgment by redefining sin as educational deficiency or moral laziness or poor work ethic are nothing more than flimsy excuses for our real condition. Original sin is the inexpressible impairment and corruption of the human nature; nothing pure and good remains in our internal and external powers, and we can never produce anything good as judged by God.

JUSTICE AND JUDGEMENT

God's judgment on sin is that Adam and every person after him has lost the status of "very good" before God. With our disposition turned so wholly inward and completely away from God, our hostility toward God deserves only God's disfavor and judgment. And that judgment is a decree of death imposed on each person. This sentence includes physical death and eternal death and condemnation, which is hell and all the torments we associate with that place of destruction. No one in any way can ever free himself from that wrath of God.

The distresses and sorrows of this life — the miseries of body and spirit — daily remind us of our condition and the judgment of death. We are held captive to our own wretchedness and are subject to the present power of Satan, who continues to mislead us into false belief, wicked and shameful vices, despair, and pride. The Law does not make one a sinner. It seeks the sinner, and it unmistakably finds, judges, and kills the sinner it seeks.

And that makes sin a big deal.

Punishment for Sin

Even after we repent and seek forgiveness from others and from God, we will often suffer the effects of our sin. The effects do not take away or pay for our sins. We still deserve punishment. But we need not fear God's eternal punishment for sin. "God shows His love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5: 8).

What Do We Do with the Mess We're in?

Corrupted by original sin, we place ourselves at the center of our universe from the very moment of our birth. Because of this predilection to godlessness, we have (see page 2) stacked up crime after crime against God. We do what we do because we are what we are. We are in a world of trouble. If we are ever going to have the least hope of knowing God, let alone have a relationship with God, something will have to be done about who we are and what we have done.

It would be a sad state of existence if God just left us at this point, trapped in our self-made hell, separated from Him, our only future one of eternal torment. But God did not create us and then abandon us to our own failed devices. He did not thunder His Law at us and then turn away. God the Son came to earth as the one sinless human being, the one perfect person who kept God at the center and followed all the rules without breaking them. For the sake of Jesus, God does not count sin and its consequences against those baptized into Christ Jesus. And we would never hear this message as Good News if we did not understand the reality of sin.

Chariots 4 Hope accepts vehicle donations (running or not), cash donations (to help with maintaining the vehicle), community partnerships and volunteering to support individuals in need of reliable transportation to enhance their options. Good Shepherd News & Notes

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT—John 6: 5 “Jesus said to Philip, ‘Where are we to buy bread, so that these people might eat?’” Of course Jesus knows the answer to that question — He knows how He means to care for His people. The Lord provided, and He still provides. This knowledge frees us for generosity without fear.

LIFE MOMENT

Jesus clearly instructs us not to regard physical impairment as reason for condemnation to death (John 9:3). Yet our culture often uses disability as an excuse for abortion and euthanasia. The Lord our God works wonders through our neighbors’ brokenness just as He does through our own. So we may cheerfully, compassionately, courageously persuade our communities to turn away from doctor-assisted deaths.

COLLEGE STUDENT MEAL

On Sunday, March 26th, after the second service, there will be a meal for all our college students. There is a sign-up sheet in the narthex if you would be willing to bring food or help serve. Please contact Elizabeth Moline (701-640-7989) with any questions. College students, please plan to attend and bring a friend!

For those who are unable to join us at Good Shepherd this Sunday, spend a part of your Lenten season with Main Street Living, Pastor Kuhlman, and the Main Street Living choir.
