After spending 23 years caring for neonatal intensive care unit (NICU) infants and their families, nurse Katrina Mullen has officially become an adoptive mother of a teen mom and her three babies. Mullen, who works at Community Hospital North in Indianapolis, met the 14-year-old mother, Shariya Small, when she gave birth to her three premature babies at 26 weeks gestation. The triplets—a boy and two girls—weighed less than two pounds each at birth and had to spend four months in the NICU. During that time, Mullen formed a close bond with the young mother. ... Mullen decided to stay in touch even after Small's babies were discharged. ... One day, when Small's son required a trip to the hospital, Mullen agreed to look after Small's two daughters. During the hospitalization, the Indiana Department of Child Services conducted an investigation into the living conditions in Small's home and determined that her children needed to be placed in foster care, which prompted Small to call Mullen in a state of panic. Mullen, who has five children of her own, including two in high school and a seven-year-old, decided to take in the young mother and her babies as her own. "Just from being a nurse, I knew there would not be many foster homes that would take a teen mother with three kids ... I didn't want them to be separated. I wanted them to stay together," Mullen explained. (Live Action News, 3/17/23; CLR LifeWire, 3/23/23)

Speaking up For Life

"You and I are God's workmanship as well. In and of ourselves, we have nothing to offer God. But He gave us His Son, eternal life, forgiveness of sins, as well as the grace to serve Him. By God's tender mercies we are qualified to serve Him now and forevermore!" Daily Devotion, Redeemer Lutheran Church, Sister Lakes, Michigan

"So how's life? Are you stuck? Are you burdened? Are you troubled? Are you afraid? Do you think you've got nothing to live for? Stop acting like Jesus is dead because He's not. Look again at His life-giving hands. Jesus is alive! Let's act like it. Let's pray like it. Let's believe like it. Let's embrace His call, 'I am sending you' (John 20:21), and bring the Gospel to everyone, one soul at a time. Live life like there is no death because Easter means there is no death. Easter makes life really worth living." Rev. Peter Sulzle, St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church, Redwood Falls, Minnesota

"Just as He did on the embryonic leg of your journey, the Lord is guiding you still. Just as He did when you cascaded down the fallopian tube, the Lord carries you still. You were created to listen to the words of the Lord. Listen to the One who knows you, who knows your entire journey." Rev. Gary Blobaum
